

THE FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT

*Together with the Statement of Accounts and List of Donors and Subscribers:
November 1, 1923 to October 31, 1924*

TALBOT HOUSE (FOR TOC H IS MERELY AN AFFECTIONATE DIMINUTIVE, THE SIGNALLER'S TRICK FOR SAYING "T.H." IN THE NOISE OF WAR) was a house that love built in 1915, love very literally among the ruins. The house stood in one of the main streets of Poperinghe, a place which the British soldier knew as the first upstanding and habitable place when he came out of the semi-circle of unspeakable mud and suffering shown on military maps as the Ypres Salient. The Salient has faded as completely from the atlases as the war itself from the minds (it would seem) of some people. But Talbot House remains as a legacy—the only living and beneficent one, it often appears to some of us—of that time and place. On a stage and in an emergency no smaller than those of the war, it continues to play its part, admittedly tiny as yet, as light is given to it.

Actually "Everyman's Club," as it stood in the streets of Poperinghe (and in miniature also for a time in Ypres), is already to be found, pretty closely repeated in a series of visible houses, each containing a team, a true family of twenty or so young men. But around these and far beyond these are scattered throughout the land little groups of like-minded men, meeting each other not oftener perhaps than once a fortnight, having as yet no common habitation, but very conscious of having a common name—the members of the branches and groups of Toc H. They are drawn from most of the honest occupations and from every rank in society; if one sells laces and braces in the market, another is the Prince of Wales. In the office and the factory, the parish and the council, they have necessary ranks and titles, but in their spare hours spent in Toc H they have none. They are of all shades of political opinion, and owe allegiance to all kinds of Christian denominations; they are asked only to believe loyally according to individual conscience. They are not even all, or more than half, "ex-service"; and the boy leaving school, whether Eton or elementary—is the hope of our movement.

Toc H sets out to be a Fellowship, or—more simply—a family. It seeks to bring together the most diverse elements in our world of every day, to unite them so intimately that, knowing each other, they will cease to misunderstand as they have too often done, and ceasing to misunderstand they will put love and humour and co-operation in the place of the bitterness and dismallness and strife which have marred the past. This is no small thing, even though it be accomplished as yet on a little scale. And Toc H sets out to do service, voluntary, most diverse according as powers are given to the most different men. The scout troop and the boys' club, the class-room and the cricket field, church and chapel, the works and the regiment, Council and Cabinet offer all the opportunity any man can need. It is to be service done with other men in partnership, not for other men less fortunate, by way of patronage. It is to be service offered to existing bodies, already in the field and hampered by lack of labourers, not the setting up of just one more competitive agency. Above all, the fellowship is to be, with all its endeavour, a Christian Fellowship, and the service, without equivocation, to be done in the ranks of those who build away hopefully at a city of God.

ANNUAL REPORT AND ACCOUNTS

NOVEMBER 1ST, 1923, TO OCTOBER 31ST, 1924.

TOC H made steady progress during the year under review. In March, 1924, the date of the last Annual Report, there were 16 Houses, 61 Branches, and 37 Groups. On March 1st, 1925, there were 20 Houses, and a Hostel for sea-going boys, 77 Branches, and 59 Groups.

The Birthday Party was again held in the Guildhall on December 15th, and Lamps of Maintenance were lit for 16 new branches, including one overseas. The branches, almost without exception, made real progress during the year, and the standard required before a Group is promoted to branch status is now much higher. The last 12 Groups awarded Lamps at the end of the year were selected out of 49, and the number of new groups is increasing rapidly.

The Rev. P. B. Clayton continued to be Hon. Padre of Toc H, and the padres at Manchester, Leicester, Southampton, Birmingham, Winnipeg and Bristol remained on the staff. Five additional padres were appointed: the Rev. A. Birkmire (Congregationalist) to Halifax, and afterwards to London; the Rev. G. L. Williams to Sheffield; the Rev. C. W. Hutchinson to Woolwich for South London; the Rev. K. McFarland temporarily to Hull; and the Rev. G. MacLeod, M.C., to Glasgow. Mr. McFarland was sent to Hull temporarily because a generous gift of £5,000 was made in the spring of 1924 specially to endow a chaplaincy in Hull. The Rev. T. M. Garaway has now been appointed Hull Padre, and Mr. McFarland has rejoined the Staff of All Hallows, Barking, being also Hon. Toc H Padre for London, Western Area. The Rev. H. J. Fleming, C.M.G., was appointed Hon. Advisory Padre at Headquarters. The Rev. W. E. Drury, now Vicar of Spetisbury-cum-Charlton Marshall, Dorset, continues to be an Hon. Toc H Padre. The Revs. Pryor Grant (New York), H. E. E. Hayes (Melbourne) and George Moore (London) were appointed Hon. Toc H Padres. A large number of clergy of various denominations were appointed honorary branch and group padres. Since the end of the year two more whole-time padres have been appointed, the Revs. T. Garaway and T. C. C. Brochner, the latter to London, N. and E. Area. The Rev. Edward Harrison, Vicar of St. Catherine's, Abercrombie Square, has joined the Staff of Toc H as part-time padre, Liverpool.

Reference was made in the last report to the request made by Toc H to the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, that the launching of the movement in Scotland might have their approval and support. The Assembly in May, 1924, passed the following resolution on the report on the subject submitted to them by one of their committees:—

"The Assembly have received with much interest the information communicated regarding Toc H. They rejoice to hear of the success of its efforts in England and elsewhere, and they cordially accede to the request that Toc H, beginning work in Scotland, should do so with the approval and under the authority of the Church of Scotland, and in connection with the Committee on Christian Life and Work. The Assembly also authorise the Presbytery of Glasgow to take the Rev. George F. MacLeod for ordination in connection with this work."

A member of the Exeter Branch in October made a gift to Toc H of his interest, threequarters, in the advowson of Roche, in Cornwall. The advowson of St. Edmund's, Exeter, has since been presented to Toc H by Mr. H. W. Michelmores. St. Edmund's is a poor parish in Exeter, which will have a new and special claim in future on the activities of the Exeter Branch.

The work of Toc H in the schools was continued, and it is hoped to reorganise this on a more effective basis and to extend it considerably. Besides the usual visits to Public and Secondary Schools, a particularly close liaison has been achieved with Marlborough, Lancing, and Haileybury, while parties from Wellington and Lancing have been entertained in the London Houses and given an insight into social conditions.

The Administration Staff was increased by the appointment of M. C. Callis and A. Lodge as Assistant Secretaries for the Manchester and Sheffield areas, respectively, the salaries of both for the first year being raised locally. On the other hand, the paid appointment of London Secretary was abolished, and the Rev. H. B. Ellison became Hon. Secretary, London Area. In January, 1925, R. R. Calkin was appointed whole-time Jobmaster, London Area.

The staff in the north having been increased, R. C. Grant was transferred in the autumn from Sheffield to London, becoming Deputy General Secretary. Recently Leslie Abdy (Sheffield Branch) has been appointed Assistant Secretary for the Newcastle Area, to work under the general supervision of Dr. J. B. McDougall, a member of the Central Executive.

Alec Paterson was forced, by sheer pressure of work, to resign the Chairmanship of the Central Executive in the autumn, and R. S. May has since acted as Chairman. It is impossible here to add anything to what Barclay Baron has already said in the JOURNAL about Alec, and about how much Toc H (and very many of us individually) owe to him.

W. A. Hurst, General Manager, Car and General Insurance Corporation, was appointed Hon. Treasurer by the Central Council in April, 1924.

This year, in addition to the consolidated accounts of Toc H, separate accounts are printed of each of the branches which manage houses, except Winnipeg, and in addition the accounts of the Bradford Branch. These accounts have been audited for the Corporation by our auditors or by local firms chosen by them and acting on their account. The Winnipeg accounts, audited by Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co., are being returned to Canada to be published in Winnipeg.

Seven new houses appear in the accounts, viz., Mark IX, Bristol, previously leased, but purchased during the year; Mark XII, Halifax; The Brothers' House, Kennington; Mark XV, Woolwich; Mark XXII, Bermondsey; a house in Southampton, Talbot House, bought as a hostel for sea-going boys; and a house in Montreal. The last house is now being sold, as the branch, which committed Toc H to the purchase, subsequently found themselves unable to run the house. The Kennington and Bermondsey houses and Talbot House, Southampton, were opened just at the close of the year.

Turning first to the consolidated balance sheet, the figures show the following increases in various funds: Endowment of chaplaincies, £6,512 (made up of the Hull Endowment, £1,500 raised by the Manchester Bazaar appropriated as the first instalment of the Manchester Chaplaincy Endowment, and £12 raised locally for the Bristol Chaplaincy); Memorial Rooms Fund, £1,332; Hostel Properties, £1,305 (£600 given for the Kennington House in addition to a previous gift, and £705 raised for a Birmingham House not yet bought); Income and Expenditure account balance, £3,941. This makes an increase in funds (excluding sundry funds) and reserve of £13,090. A new provision, £1,250, has also been made for depreciation.

On the other side of the account investments remain unchanged, but real property account has been increased (apart from additional expenditure on old properties) by £16,127 gross or £13,308 net (i.e., after deducting the amounts, £2,819, left on mortgage on houses newly purchased). Also, the expenditure on furnishing and equipping houses was £4,566 (and there were bills in hand for £1,284 nearly at the end of the year), while the sums received specially for furnishing, Memorial Rooms Fund, amounted, as noted above, to £1,332. The result was that in 1923-24 capital expenditure largely exceeded money received specially for capital purposes, together with the surplus on revenue account. This expenditure was met partly from a loan of £500 made at 3 per cent. by a friend of Toc H, and partly by a temporary loan from our bankers. £2,100 were received in 1923-24, and in the preceding year, for the Kennington House, and further donations are anticipated. Part of the cost of the Southampton boys hostel has been subscribed since the end of the year, but donations have not yet been received towards the cost of the other houses newly purchased.

The consolidated income and expenditure account shows receipts of £15,716 against £17,000 in the previous year. The previous year's figures contains a sum of £3,249 given specially by Mrs. Willard Straight, of New York. This year's figure is exclusive of £1,000 given specially for the "world tour." The increase in the number of chaplains resulted in the increase of the item "Chaplains' salaries" from £1,592 to £3,103. The charges for travelling allowances in 1922-23 were exceptional, as Major Edwards travelled from Canada to England, and the Rev. H. Cawley from Canada to England and back at the expense of Toc H. Also last year there was a considerable item, formation expenses, which does not appear in 1923-24. If the amounts of these items and the loss on hostels and the Sports' Club are excluded, and also the salaries of chaplains, all the other expenditure of Toc H charged to "revenue" was £5,670 in 1923-24 as against £6,014 in the previous year.

The London Hostels paid £533 on repairs, &c., in large part "arrears" from previous year, paid £106 to headquarters expenses, and made a small surplus. There were four houses during most of the year and seven at the end of it.

The Manchester and Salford branches (with two houses) made a surplus of £211 on the houses. They raised over £2,043 by a bazaar. Of this £1,500 were transferred to the Chaplaincy Endowment Fund, and £179 were used to pay their Area Assistant Secretary. £460 were paid to these branches for memorial rooms. Their surplus for the year was £1,110.

The Southampton Branch raised £754 (including £30 for a memorial room), lost £212 on the house, and had a surplus of £143. Arrangements have been made to increase the sleeping accommodation in this house, and it is hoped that this loss will not be repeated.

The Birmingham Branch raised £705 towards the purchase of a house, and £81 for other purposes. Its loss on the present house was £103, and its total deficit, after transferring £705 to hostel property fund, was £115. The question of finding a suitable house is being considered carefully by the branch. In any case the present arrangement by which a house is shared with another society, and the accommodation at the disposal of Toc H is insufficient, is not likely to be continued.

The Sheffield Branch received £110 for memorial rooms, and in addition to other small sums, raised £1,385 by a bazaar. Of this money £250 were transferred to "headquarters" to provide the salary of the Area Assistant Secretary for a year. The branch lost £461 nearly on the house, and the Central Executive called on the branch to close the house, or to provide local guarantees against loss or to suggest an alternative. It was finally settled that the house should be continued for another six months, the arrangements for running it being radically revised, and it was guaranteed that any loss during this period would be met locally.

The income of the Bristol Branch was £296, including £130 for memorial rooms and £12 for the Endowment of Chaplaincy Fund. It lost £93 on the house, owing to special difficulties not likely to recur. On the year's working, after reserving donations earmarked for special purposes, it lost £25.

The Hull Branch received £874 for general purposes and £96 for memorial rooms. The loss on the house was £181, and will be inquired into specially.

The Leicester Branch accounts show a small loss on the house, £26. The receipts amounted to £1,391, £115 being for memorial rooms. There was a small loss of £14 on the Swindon Hostel.

The Halifax Branch raised £504, but it lost £333 on its house. The Assistant Secretary of the Sheffield Area is being transferred to Halifax in order that he may supervise the management of this house in addition to his other work, and unless the results of this supervision are satisfactory the closing of the house will be considered.

March, 1925.

An Appeal.

The following letter from one of the Trustees of Toc H. speaks for itself:—

17, Albemarle Street,
London, W.1.

23rd March, 1925.

DEAR MONIE,—

The accounts of Toc H for 1923-4 which you have just shown me make me wish to write and emphasise a point which I have several times made in conversations with Tubby and yourself. I realise the great number of very generous gifts which Toc H has had, but nearly all of these have been earmarked for some specific purpose, such as endowing a chaplaincy or purchasing a house, and these gifts have frequently involved the incurring of additional expenditure. The well-being and the continued growth of Toc H seem to me to require more and more urgently funds which are not earmarked in any way, but which can be used at the discretion of the Executive for the best interests of Toc H.

The accounts for 1923-24 show that while the great expansion of the Movement has involved a large increase in the expenditure on chaplains—of whom we now have 14, 11 being paid by Toc H and only 5 chaplaincies being endowed—the standing overhead charges have on the whole been reduced. The real difficulty has been to find the capital required to purchase and furnish new houses. It has been necessary to supplement donations for this purpose by borrowing, and there are mortgages on a number of the houses which it is desirable to pay off.

I am sure that there are few members of Toc H who are not now convinced that Toc H has come to stay, and that those of them who are in a position to help by special gifts of money have only to realise the need to be ready to assist.

As one of the Trustees, I am convinced that the efficient development of Toc H urgently requires that the Executive should have at their disposal a considerable sum not earmarked in any way, and I recommend an appeal to members to help, if they can, by special donations this year for general purposes.

Yours sincerely,
MONTAGUE ELLIS.

P. W. Monie, Esq.,
Toc H,
123, St. George's Square, S.W.
